Group Critiques

<https://forms.gle/xDJwkctHPVfVuHD59>

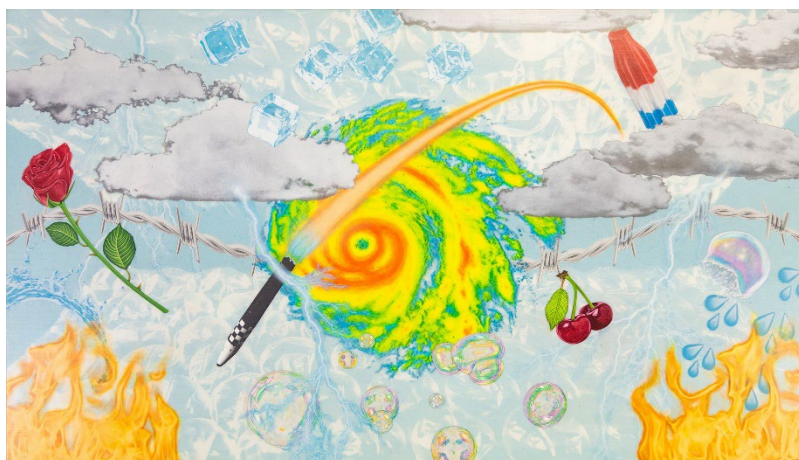

This form is for members of the Pittsburgh Print Group who wish to present their work and receive feedback at one of our quarterly critiques. Non-members are welcome to attend, but cannot present work.

Sessions happen on Saturdays from 1 - 3 pm at Radiant Hall's Homewood location at 7800 Susquehanna St. The building has a large parking lot and is within walking distance of the East Busway's Wilksburg Station and the 71D, 67, 69, 71C, and 86 bus lines.

Each session will be moderated by a guest and will feature 4 presenters. Each presenter will be given approximately 6ft of wall space and table space to display their artwork. Presenters should plan to arrive 15 minutes before the start of the critique to set up. Tacks, nails, and binder clips will be provided and organizers will be available to help with setup.

Save the date for the next session on July 11!

May Day

The theme “Mayday” is open to wide interpretation — from its ancient pagan roots celebrating spring and renewal, to its political and social resonances, to its modern use as a universal call for help originated in the 1920s. Four artist will explore these ideas in the Pittsburgh Print Group's new show, MAYDAY, opening on May 1st from 6 to 10 at PullProof Studio. Artist include:

Casey Connelly: <https://caseyconnelly.com/>

Abigail Franzen-Sheehan: www.a-franzen-sheehan.com

Meryl Engler: www.merylengler.com
